

Technology/Hospitality/Community Service Options Semester 2, 2016

Class Name that you choose on EDVAL	Year	Unit	Description
Automotive.A	12,11	Automotive Vehicle Systems	Students will study the vehicle systems of cars including the transmission, suspension, steering, braking, and drive-line systems.
Automotive.M	12,11
Community Services 2.A	12,11	Disability and Aged Care	Students will study the disability and aged care sectors and the range of job roles available in care careers.
Community Services 4.A	12
Construction.A	12,11	Construction Pathways - Bricklaying	Students will investigate the specialist skills of bricklaying through a range of practical projects.
Food for Life 2.A	12,11	Nutrition for Life	Students will study nutrition throughout the lifecycle and prepare a wide range of nutritious meals.
Hospitality 2.A	12,11	Hospitality Service Procedures	Students will investigate a wide range of cookery methods, ingredients and the equipment used to produce foods and beverages to industry standard.
Hospitality 2.M	12,11
Hospitality 4.A	12	Leadership in Café Training	Students will investigate the planning, organisation and implementation of food and beverage service procedures and customer service skills.
Metal Tech 2.A	12,11	Metal Light Fabrication	Students will investigate the range and types of metals and fasteners used in light fabrication through a self directed major project.
Metal Tech 4.A	12	Metal Machining	Students will investigate the range of metal machining and turning operations through a self directed major project.
Wood Tech 2.A	12,11	Wood Technology	Students will investigate a range of simple fabrication techniques through practical projects using a range of natural woods or manufactured products.
Wood Tech 2.M	12,11
Wood Tech 4.A	12	Wood Technology Project	Students will investigate advanced wood working techniques through a practical project that allows them to construct a large furniture piece.
Wood Tech 4.M	12		